Card from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. GRAND HOTEL NATIONAL LUCERNE. May 29, 1901.

Wrote you last night from the top of Mt. Rigi. Tomorrow Daisy and I make a pilgrimage to Zurich to see Herr Schröter whom we crossed the Pacific with, I have asked Mr. Pernod to drive with us. Next day we go to Geneva, and just as soon as I can settle Mamma I will return to you. I am getting impatient to see you all. I don't care for Switzerland, we only came to settle Mamma and see that she is all right. I am hoping you won't keep me long in Atlantic City, for I have no clothes nor has Daisy. I am going to send Charles directly to Baddeck with my trunks as it would cost a fortune to bring them all down to N.Y. and then carry them up to Baddeck. It would have cost less for Daisy and me to go there too, but I understand you want me to meet you at Atlantic City.
